"A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest. Jesus said to them, 'The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.'" Luke 22:24-27

Principles from this passage:

1. God is omniscient and omnipotent.
2. God reveals himself through service.

Principle: What do you do with a God who is more humble than you?

"Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as man he humbled himself and became obedient to death – even death on the cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Philippians 2:3-11

Seven demotions:

- Christ did not hold on to his equality with God.
- He made himself nothing
- He became man (demotions 3,4,5)
- He became obedient to death
- He accepted death on a cross

3. We are never more like God than when we serve.

Principle: He who is greatest will become least and he who is least will be greatest of all.

Principle: Healing comes through serving.

4. Serving helps us to understand God.

"Because of God's great mercy to us offer yourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service." Romans 12:1
